MAJ Mark A. Strout, HQ 1-169 Avn

SFC Anthony V. Savino, Jr., Co G 104th Avn

One of the oldest aviation units in the U.S. Army, the 1109th Aviation Classification Repair Activity Depot (AVCRAD) provides heavy aviation maintenance and logistical support. The presentation will cover unit's history, mobilization and operations in Southwest Asia, and its current work in Iraq. Stationed in Afghanistan, the G 104th AVN logged more than 5,000 flight hours and pumped more than 1.5 million gallons of aviation fuel, winning the Army Aviation Association of America's 2003 National Guard Unit of the Year. Co B and D-189 Aviation successfully completed over 850 combat missions including 18,900 passengers and 972,000 pound of cargo.

Parking is available in the Legislative Office Building Garage. Enter the Armory through the Main entrance. Co-sponsored by the Connecticut Commission on Culture & Tourism and the Museum of Connecticut History. Light refreshments will be served.
